

The big celebration

Claudia was an eight-year-old girl with a radiant smile and one special passion: ice cream cones. Nothing made her happier than enjoying a delicious ice cream on a sunny day.

One day she received wonderful news: the day of her First Communion had arrived. She was excited both about its religious significance and about celebrating with all her family and friends.

After the church ceremony, everyone went to her favourite restaurant. Claudia could hardly wait to try the delicious dishes prepared for the occasion. But the best was still to come.

When she arrived, she noticed that a special surprise was waiting. A smiling waiter approached with a dish beneath a silver cover. As he lifted it, Claudia saw something that made her eyes shine with happiness: a golden ticket.

“What’s this?” she asked excitedly.

“A special present for you, Claudia,” the waiter replied. “This golden ticket lets you have free ice cream cones at this restaurant for a whole year.”

Claudia could not believe it. It felt as though all her dreams had come true. Free ice cream was the best present she could imagine.

With a delighted cry, she held the golden ticket to her chest as though it were the most precious treasure in the world. She began dreaming of all the flavours she could try and the sweet moments she would share with her friends and family.

After a day full of happiness, Claudia fell asleep smiling, her ticket close by, knowing that her ice cream adventures had only just begun.

And so Claudia continued to enjoy life’s sweet moments, her wonderful gift and her lasting love of delicious ice cream cones.
